

ELSA'S KOPJE

Location:

Named after Elsa, the lioness raised by George and Joy Adamson and made famous by the story of Born Free, this Gold eco-rating camp sits high on the rocky outcrop of Mughwango Hill above George Adamson's original campsite. The camp offers spectacular views over the plains of Meru National Park.

Elsa's Kopje can be reached via a 45-minute flight from Nairobi, then 20 minutes by road from the airstrip. This 15km drive through the park often takes the form of a leisurely game drive

Rooms:

The spacious cottages, each with en suite bathroom and large open living room, have views from the private verandas across the adjacent plains: 06 spacious Cottage Suites (4 doubles & two twins), 01 Family Cottage (1 double & 1 twin), 01 Private House (1 double & 1 twin) including private swimming pool and garden, 03 Honeymoon Cottages each with a large master bedroom and en suite facilities

Amenities/Facilities:

- Restaurant with views across the plains,
- Infinity swimming pool,
- massage room,
- Gift shop,
- Wi-Fi available in all public areas
